SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA

REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

This case is of major significance as relates to Judicial divestment of corporeal hereditaments, specifically those easement rights in and to platted streets and rights to tidal waters.

The case is of further importance in that the procedural rules and the parameters of authority of the Special Master and the Trial Court in non statutory appointments of Special Masters should be examined and specified by this Court, not only for the benefit of the present inquiry but as guidelines or law in subsequent cases of like nature.

Counsel for the Appellant has notified opposing counsel of his intent to orally argue the above appeal and will immediately notify this Court of the Appellee's intentions when same is made known to the Appellant.

This the 5th day of December, 2007.

Respectfully submitted,

Donald O. Nelson
Attorney for the Appellants
